

I think that it would be a tragedy if the government was to regulate a premium service. It is a shame that XM is under attack because they offer service and programing that local radio has never been willing to offer. Please leave XM well alone!!

Trace Maples
devoted XMer